Dear Brother Lenderman:

Thank you so much for your kind remarks about my recent visit to Anniston. It was a pleasure to be in the area and to get to know the fine preachers working in that area. Thank you for the invitation of the elders to come and be with you in a gospel meeting. Unfortunately, I cannot schedule the third Sunday in June before 1974. If you desire that date, I will be happy to schedule a meeting to begin on Sunday morning, June 16, and continue through Friday evening, June 21, 1974. Unfortunately, my schedule will not allow such an effort longer than Sunday through Friday.

I will understand perfectly if the elders do not desire to schedule this effort either because of the year involved or the number of days. If they do desire to schedule this, I will look forward to hearing from you in the very near future.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
